SCOUTS CALLED TO PUSH LOAN

Third Liberty Loan Campaign to Continue Eleven Days
Beginning April 20.

NEW YORK, March 21.—Letters from President Wilson and Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo to the Boy Scouts of America asking the Scouts to participate in the Third Liberty loan campaign were made public today at the organization's national headquarters here. It was announced that the eleven days beginning April 20 had been set aside during which the Scouts will conduct a country-wide campaign in an effort to surpass the bond selling record, $102,084,100, which they made on behalf of the second loan.

President Wilson in his appeal to the Scouts wrote that their patriotic and effective service in their definitely worked out program of war work activities is a splendid testimonial to the value of organized boyhood in helping our country win the war.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with undigested foods, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

NOME, Alaska, March 22.—About 500 dressed reindeer will be shipped to the food markets of "the states" on the first boat leaving here after the breakup of the ice on Bering Sea this spring. All winter long a marketing firm has been slaughtering and preparing a certain number of shipments outside. Several hundred are in cold storage here now waiting the boat.

AMERICANS WATCH GERMAN DRIVE

Terrific German Onslaught
May Be Forerunner of Some Other Movement.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—American military observers already having cast their doubts on whether the German drive begun yesterday really heralds the long expected German offensive, were closely scanning the official dispatches today for evidence to support their view that the German onslaught, terrific as it may be, really is the forerunner of some other movement.

There is a marked tendency among American army officers here not to accept the present movement as the real offensive until it is more fully demonstrated.

Despite announcement from London that the German war machine is attacking on a wider front than ever before attempted in the west, there is a distinct feeling here that the move may not prove more than a gigantic demonstration to swerve European neutrals, or cloak some other purpose Germany has in mind.

Observers scanning military situation. American observers think that the military situation in France is against the probability of a real German offensive at this time. The view prevails that Germany now would hardly stake the issue of the war on a desperate drive against the all but impregnable Allied line in the west.

Strike Made for Effect. Reports from Holland that Germany semi-officially has made a peace offer to the Entente, coming at the same time as the attack engaged immediate attention. Although there was nothing to confirm the reports, it was pointed out that the threat of German guns may be for its effect on the people of England and France. Some see significance in the fact that the drive follows closely on the seizure of the Dutch ships in American and British waters.

Supreme confidence is expressed on every hand, however, in the Allies' ability to arrest the Germans even should the attack now reported under way from La Fere to the Scarpe prove to be the grand offensive.

Salts in Hot Water Clears Pimples Skin

Says we must make kidneys clean the blood, and pimples disappear.

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the kidneys are more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy a bottle of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity, thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear, cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.—Advertisement.

ROOSEVELT FOR BOYS' RESERVE

The following message has been received from Theodore Roosevelt: "I wish to express my hearty and unreserved support of the boys' working reserve to include the boys between the ages of 16 and 21 who ordinarily would not be in productive labor and who can be turned into workers on the farm. The farmer has been prompt to recognize that the strong, healthy boy is a tremendous help at this time. One of the great benefits conferred is that of making the boy realize that he is a part of Uncle Sam's team, that he is doing his share in this great war and that he holds his services in trust for the nation."

I. W. W. REPORT ABOUT READY

Gathering of Evidence Against Citizens Who Deported Agitators About Finished.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Gathering of evidence against citizens of Bisbee, Ariz., who were responsible for the deportation of 1186 striking copper miners last July 12 has about been completed by the department of justice and a report will be made soon to President Wilson.

Some department of justice officials believe that federal statutes were violated in the seizure by the vigilante committee of the Bisbee censorship over interstate connection of both telephone and telegraph lines and by the committee's measures to prevent the return of some of the deported workers to their homes where they were registered for the draft.

If it is found that there is insufficient evidence to justify prosecution in federal courts, it is probable that the department of justice's report will be forwarded to Governor Hunt of Arizona for any action he may wish to take.

Organized Labor Investigation. It is understood that federal agents also have investigated complaints by organized labor that copper mining companies of the Warren district of Arizona financed I. W. W. propaganda among the workers in order to discredit the organized labor movement.

Reports on this and other phases of the investigation have been received from United States Attorney Flynn of the Arizona district.

The attention of the department of justice was called to the Warren deportation particularly by a report of the labor mediation committee headed by Secretary Wilson last November after inquiries into labor troubles in the copper district. The committee declared there was little basis for the fear of Bisbee citizens that the strikers planned extensive sabotage, that most of the men were law abiding citizens, and that there was justification for the forcible deportation, made under the direction of Sheriff Wheeler of Cochise county, with the assistance of a number of citizens sworn in as deputies.

The committee recommended enactment of a federal law making similar deportations from one state to another a criminal act.

M'ADOO ACTS ON RAILROAD LAW

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The first act of Director General McAdoo yesterday, after President Wilson signed the railroad bill which provides a $500,000,000 revolving fund and prescribes a basis of compensation to the owners during federal operation, was to issue an order restricting railroads' capital expenditures to extension and betterments absolutely essential under war conditions. Inasmuch as the government has now undertaken largely the financing of improvements and purchase of new equipment, the order will serve as a safeguard to the big working fund.

The signing of the bill opens the way for the railroad administration to proceed with necessary extensions, with the negotiation of agreements on compensation, and with other forms of financial assistance to the companies.

One of the first results probably will be the conclusion of an arrangement by which the government will participate to some degree in the meeting of $43,000,000 notes of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railway, due April 15. An announcement of this subject may be made this week.

Without waiting for the railroad bill to pass the final stage of the president's approval, Mr. McAdoo had created in the railroad administration a division of capital expenditures, headed by Robert S. Lovett, former director of priorities for the war industries board, to supervise the regulation of additions and betterments.

This division will scan all requests for the building of new terminals, extension of lines, purchase of locomotives, cars and other equipment and all other enterprises requiring expenditure of capital.

Engineers of the railroad administration will report on the physical feasibility of proposed betterments before these are considered by higher officials. After being approved by Mr. Lovett and the director-general, proposals involving capital expenditures will go to the division of finance and purchases, headed by John Skelton Williams, for execution.

In his order, Mr. McAdoo asked railroads considering extensions to be guided by the war-time necessity for conserving capital, labor and material.

and by the idea that enterprises which might be meritorious from the standpoint of an individual railway, may not be desirable now that the railway systems have been unified under government control. He specified that construction of new lines or branches and purchase of locomotives or cars should not be undertaken without his approval.

Extension work begun or contracted for before January 1 when the government took over control may be continued. No work involving a charge of more than $25,000 to the capital account may be started without the director-general's approval, but enterprises requiring less than that amount do not require specific approval providing they are essential and are in conformity with a previously established custom of the road.

Theatres

AT THE ORPHEUM. Anyone who couldn't get a good laugh and a good evening of entertainment out of the present week's bill at the Orpheum theater must not have anything in common with the remainder of humankind. The bill is among the best of the best bills which Manager Joe Goss has plucked from the Pantheon offering this whole season. It seems to have just the right diversity to appeal to everyone. It got a warm reception yesterday.

Perhaps Tom Kelly scored the biggest individual hit of the performance. Tom is an Irishman and it "sticks out all over his face." He has an Irish twinkle in his eye and a rich but unaffected Irish brogue and his Irish jokes are anything but poor. And besides all these qualifying features, Tom has a rich voice which he uses in singing some of the most up-to-date war songs which have been written. Tom runs on for half an hour with his blarney and ballads and even then the audience is loath to let him go.

Comes another Willard Mack comedy this week and it is well turned. It is "Don't Do It," a farce set with a divorcee shop scenario. Of course the husband and wife, both intending to get a divorce, meet in the shop and after several thrilling situations and laughable episodes, during which they go rid of some caustic satire and domestic dialogue, they make up and cheat the shop of a brace of clients.

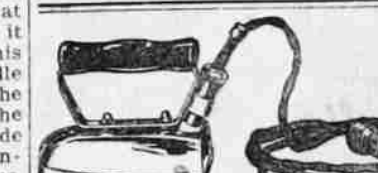

Now the last act of the bill is the musical extravaganza, of course, but it is so far superior to the other "last acts" which Ogden folks have seen at the Orpheum for the season that it deserves a class for itself. Really this act would fit well on any vaudeville house pressing a man six-bits and the war tax for entry. Eddie Vogt is the chap with the attraction in the "Bride Shop" and Eddie has little one-man-power fun shop which is uproarious. He is the kind of boy who seems to fairly exude hilarity and humor and he is the life of the show. The chorus is tolerable, the singing pretty good, but Eddie shades 'em all. Now the count, or the baron, was no slacker and the leading lady was pretty and willing, but this Eddie rascal ought to be visited personally before he is snapped up for a prize box.—Eddie is good.

Flo and Ollie Walters, two kids of the real ilk, have a charming little sketch. Both are fetching and full of pep and they unload some fairly good stuff. Ollie is somewhat of a tomboy and she convinces the audience that she is a real funny youngster.

Rodrikuez is a Mexican boy, who has escaped the terrors but dearly beloved revolutions which have made living below the line uncertain for several years to come up to the states and show the natives how to walk a slack wire. Roddy knows that trick, too. He walks on a slack wire as though it were nothing worse than a slippery pavement and even emulates a drunken wayfarer in his peripatations toward home. The Mutt and Jeff effort this week is not so good, but Mutt versus Jeff have furnished their share of thrills before so one can allow them a rest occasionally.

SONG OF SIXPENCE, PLUS—O, sing a song of hominy. And also Irish stew—For boarders can't be choosers. Of even their meat! I called for more variety. Upon my bill of fare—I thought the piece-meal needed change. The board was so threadbare. And now I wish I'd bolstered less.
